DIABETIC RETINOPATHY DETECTION REPORT

AI-Powered Retinal Analysis System

Department of Information Technology — University of Haripur

Physician: Dr. huzaifa
Hospital: xyz
Specialization: opthomology
Report Date: 03 May 2026, 17:27

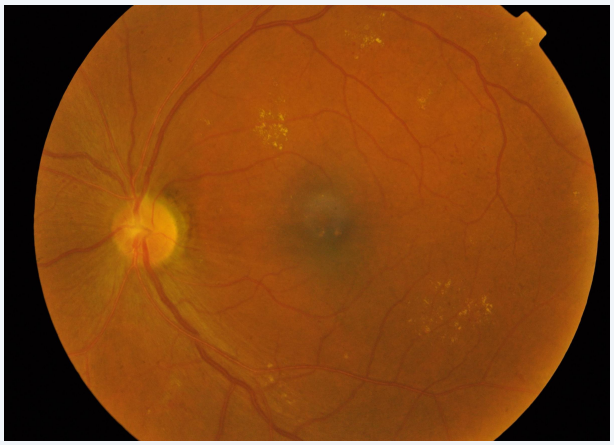

PATIENT INFORMATION

Patient Name	dfgd	Patient ID	df
Age	56 years	Gender	Female
Contact	sdf	Email	sdfsd@gmail.com
Diabetes Since	1-5 years	Eye Examined	Right Eye
Analysis Date	03 May 2026 17:26	Analysis ID	#00002

DIAGNOSIS RESULT

MODERATE DR Confidence: 50.9%

Original Retinal Image

SEVERITY CLASS PROBABILITIES

Grade	Class	Probability	Bar
Grade 0	No DR	12.99%
Grade 1	Mild DR	11.16%
Grade 2	Moderate DR	50.89%
Grade 3	Severe DR	14.92%
Grade 4	Proliferative DR	10.04%

CLINICAL RECOMMENDATION

- Moderate non-proliferative diabetic retinopathy detected.

- Referral to a retinal specialist is recommended within 3-6 months.
- Immediate optimization of blood glucose, blood pressure, and lipid levels.
- Anti-VEGF therapy or laser photocoagulation may be considered.

MEDICAL HISTORY & NOTES

sdfs

DISCLAIMER: This report is generated by an AI-assisted diagnostic tool intended to support clinical decision-making. It does not replace the professional judgment of a licensed ophthalmologist or retinal specialist. All findings must be reviewed and confirmed by a qualified medical professional before any treatment decisions are made.